TERPSICHORE HOLDS FULL SWAY AS LINERS SAIL FOR THE COAST

"Everybody's Doing It" Sets Nimble Feet In Motion on Sierra Decks—Wilhelmina Carried Larger List of Passengers and Freight—Oceanic Boat Takes Mails—Three Inter-Island Arrivals—Windjammers Now Preparing for Get-away for the North.

Herr Berger, the veteran manipulator of the guiding baton which controls the motions and volume of sound manufactured by his sturdy musicians, whispered a few magical words into the ear of several of his subordinates while the organization was playing an enthusiastic farewell to the departing Sierra. The man behind the diminutive saxophone and a bevy of cornets immediately switched into the wild surges of "Everybody's Doing It" and then followed a decided terpsichorean disturbance of no mean proportions.

The Sierra's decks held a goodly crowd of passengers as well as their friends. The stirring melody of this late "rag"—something new from a Bergelesque standpoint—set several gay and dashing damsels off on a spin about the crowded promenade. Two or three of the more lively proved the center of attraction for many hundreds of pairs of eyes.

The Sierra was first to pull into the stream with 90 cabin and 40 steerage passengers. The Oceanic boat carries to the mainland a full cargo including 1800 tons sugar, 5295 bunches bananas, 4000 cases preserved pineapples, 125 crates sweet potatoes and a quantity of sundries. The Sierra carried the United States mails.

Ten minutes behind the Oceanic steamer went the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina, with 5000 tons sugar and a small amount of general cargo.

The Wilhelmina carried 93 cabin and 70 steerage passengers, among the latter being a number of Spanish and Portuguese families en route to the Coast to take up employment there.

The Wilhelmina got away from Matson wharf amid the merry serenade of the famous band, which divided its attentions between the wharves. Big crowds attended the departure of both vessels.

Honolulu Brings Happy Shriners.

"We had the time of our lives while away," was a sort of concrete expression coming from a merry bunch of returning Shriners on board the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu, which pulled into berth at Hackfeld wharf early this morning. The Honolulu made the trip down from Frisco

Blakeley in the Nitrate Ports.
The American schooner Blakeley, from South American nitrate ports, is today riding at anchor awaiting a thorough fumigation at the hands of the medical officers belonging to the local quarantine staff.

The Blakeley, Captain J. W. Manka, sailed from Iquique forty-nine days ago and her skipper reports a fair trip across the Pacific. The vessel brings 1100 tons nitrates. The schooner met with some rough weather on a portion of the voyage but the windjammer arrived here with a clean health report. The Blakeley will probably be brought inside the harbor this afternoon.

Bemrose Back from the Coast.
Ross H. Bemrose, examiner with the local customs staff, is back from a delightful trip to the mainland in which he participated in the big Shriners celebration held at Los Angeles. Bemrose left here with the Arab Patrol in the last Wilhelmina and was an arrival this morning in the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu. He states that he had the time of his life while away but is nevertheless glad to get back to the Paradise of the Pacific.

Quartermaster Faces Serious Charge.
According to San Francisco newspaper accounts, Quartermaster Raymond C. Meyer of the Pacific Mail steamship Sierra, was arrested by United States Customs Inspector E. E. Enlow and turned over to the police authorities. The customs authorities last evening gave no details as to the arrest. A formal charge will be placed against the steamship officer.

Castle for the Coast Tomorrow.
Captain von Dahlen expects to conclude business arrangements in time to sail with his command, the barkentine S. N. Castle, for San Francisco tomorrow. The shipment of fifty tons copra, a portion of which became wet by sea-water while a fire was in progress on board, has been dried out and placed in sacks again.

Hall Here with Kauai Sugar.
Today's arrivals included the steamer W. G. Hall from Kauai ports with 5600 sacks sugar, one horse, a quantity of supplies, 22 sacks rice and 62 packages sundries. The vessel met with some rough weather while steaming along windward Kauai. Strong winds and seas prevailed.

James Johnson Now Discharged.
The last of the lumber brought to port in the American schooner James Johnson has been discharged and that vessel is being made ready for sea. The James Johnson arrived here on May 5th with a full cargo of lumber. The vessel is expected to be dispatched for Puget Sound ports on or about Saturday.

Niihau Brought Sugar and Cattle.
Sugar to the amount of 6400 sacks and 60 head cattle, 25 calves, 47 empty drums and 20 packages sundries were included in the assortment of cargo to arrive from Hawaii ports in the steamer Niihau. The vessel met with fine weather according to reports from her officers.

Shipping Commissioner To Move Monday.
United States Shipping Commissioner Almy will move from his offices in the Campbell block, Fort street, to larger and more convenient quarters in the Federal customs building. The office fixtures will be installed in the new premises by Monday.

Welch May Sail Saturday.
A cargo of sugar is to be supplied the American bark Andrew Welch before that vessel is ready for sea. It is expected that the Welch will be ready for dispatch for San Francisco on or about Saturday afternoon. The vessel may take a few passengers to the Coast.

Kauai Sugar.
According to report received by officers in the Inter-island steamer W. G. Hall, the following sugar is awaiting shipment on the Garden Island: MAK 25,858, G&R 3650, Melb 51,485, K KU 3550, KSM 350, VK 750, KP 12,720, RSCG 4118, LP 21,000, GP 9515 sacks.

Kauai Sailed for Hilo Today.
Taking a small general cargo and late mail, the Inter-island steamer Kauai was dispatched for Hilo and Paauhau at 10 o'clock this morning. The Kauai has been undergoing repairs and renovation during a brief stay at this port.

The Canadian-Australian liner Marama, a day late in arrival from British Columbia ports, will berth at Alakea wharf on arrival at port early tomorrow morning.

ODDS AND ENDS AT THE PORT

The steamer Hall, to sail for Kauai ports on Thursday evening, will carry a fair list of passengers and a general cargo.

The Shinyo Maru, a Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner from Hongkong and Japan ports, is expected to arrive here on Friday morning.

With the Canadian-Australian steamer Marama a day late in arrival at this port, the shipping has been pretty well distributed throughout the week.

Territorial Band divided honors very evenly between the Oceanic and Matson wharves with the departure of the Sierra and Wilhelmina for the Coast this morning.

Two trans-Pacific liners departing from Alakea wharf last evening served to make that place one of much activity as well as gaiety. The leewarders reaped a harvest of silver.

One lone stowaway was nabbed by the alert officers in the British steamship Makura during the voyage from Suva to Honolulu. The tourist is forcibly detained here pending the arrival of the Marama, upon which vessel he will be given a free trip back to Fiji.

Captain von Dahlen, the jovial skipper of the S. N. Castle, is losing faith in the beneficent spell cast by the possession of a rabbit's foot. Displaying a tallman which he claims to have carried for twenty years, the veteran skipper is seriously considering a more subtle antidote for a chronic case of "hoodooitis."

There were two Andrew Welch's in port yesterday. The well-known windjammer was lying at railway wharf preparatory to taking on sugar ballast for San Francisco and Andrew Welch, the San Francisco capitalist, was a through passenger in the liner Mrs. B. ## CARRIE MACFARLANE ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Asserts Clarence K. Macfarlane Has Neglected Her Completely.

Asserting that he has neglected and refused to provide for her since July, 1911, although competent to supply such provision, Carrie Macfarlane today filed a petition in Circuit Court asking for a decree of absolute divorce from Clarence K. Macfarlane. The petitioner, a well-known young man in Honolulu, and who at present is said to be residing in San Francisco, was married here on November 18, 1902, to the petitioner in the present action, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. L. Lono.

The motion of Noa W. Aluli, counsel for the petitioner, asking that the husband be served with a notice of the suit, was granted by Judge Whitely and the order will be transferred to the Coast metropolis and placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff. The date for hearing the case is set at July 15 at 9 a. m.

MR. AND MRS. H. K. SMITH of San Francisco were arrivals on the Honolulu this morning, and are registered at the Young. The Smiths are re-visiting Honolulu after a romantic courtship and wedding here a few months ago, when as Miss Phoebe Edwards, a headliner at the Bijou, Mrs. Smith was wooed and won.
